Deep Roots & High Hopes

IS 75!

IT'S TIME TO CELEBRATE!

In 1950 a group of West Hartford neighbors who had been worshipping at First Presbyterian Church of Hartford decided they wanted to worship closer to home. With the blessing and support of their home church and the regional Presbytery, Westminster began as a house church. Within a couple of months, over 100 people gathered each Sunday. Since then, Westminster has been a dedicated community of faithful Christians seeking to spread God's love, hope and justice around us. Join us in commemorating this special milestone.
